

COACHING CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

3-DAY PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

The Orange Duffel Bag Initiative (ODBI) is offering a 3-day Professional Development Opportunity to train and certify you to coach students in need to achieve and succeed!

The ODBI Coaching Certification Training will equip you with comprehensive curriculum and youth development coaching skills highly relevant to your professional life.

Since 2010, 1800+ students in need have received ODBI evidence- and trauma-informed coaching to improve their education outcomes. ODBI coaching and curriculum guide students to create an education and life plan while improving social / emotional learning. Students increase self-advocacy, communication skills, critical thinking, financial literacy and researching postsecondary career options. Coaches help students identify their desires, values, and talents as they frame the future they want for themselves.

Scan QR code or Click to hear more about the program from past participants.
<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1vBg7itzH28v5yCPSy64cvtbjQPMg05Lr/view>

Contact for more information and eligibility details,
Mike Daly, President, The ODBI — 770-331-7605 or MDaly@theODBI.org

"By far one of the best PDs I've attended!"

— Rodrick Holloman,
Student Engagement Specialist

"More than just learning about a curriculum, this PD was truly transformational"

— Staeshe Cooper,
School Psychologist

Educators and Child Welfare professionals will receive:

- Youth coaching methodologies and skills
- ODBI coaching model, curriculum and on-line learning platform
- Leader notes to plan, implement, monitor, and evaluate student coaching
- CEUs provided by Clayton State University
- Ongoing support and continuing education as you coach your students

Registration cost: $995⁰⁰